SEYMOUR, INDIANA, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 1919.

PRICE TWO CENTS.

FIRST M.E. CHURCH ENDS FISCAL YEAR

The Rev. C. W. Whitman, Pastor, Attends Indiana Conference at Indianapolis.

SUCCESSFUL YEAR CLOSED

The Rev. L. T. Freeland, District Superintendent, and G. H. Anderson Mentioned as Delegates.

The Rev. L. T. Freeland, superintendent of the Seymour district of the Indiana Methodist Episcopal conference, and the Rev. Charles W.
Whitman, pastor of the First M. E.
church, went to Indianapolis today to attend the annual meeting of the Indiana conference which will be in session until next Monday. The conference marks the close of the fiscal year for the Methodist churches and at the closing session the assignment of ministers for the coming year will be made.

The First M. E. church has just closed a most successful year. The finances are in the best condition in years, all obligations having been paid and it is expected that a small surplus will be carried over. During the year many improvements and repairs, aggregating hundreds of dollars, have been made and sufficient money has been raised among the membership to pay for all this work.

At a recent meeting of the official board of the church resolutions were adopted asking the conference to return Mr. Whitman to this church next year. The resolutions commended him for his effective services here and complimented him upon his efficient management of church affairs. The congregation believes that Mr. Whitman will be assigned to this charge next year and has already arranged for an increase in salary in appreciation of his earnest and untiring services.

Especially interest is centered in the conference this year inasmuch as six laymen will be chosen as delegates to the general conference to be held in Des Moines, Ia., in the summer of 1920. G. H. Anderson, who is a delegate from the local congregation, is a candidate for delegate to the general conference. This election will take place during the week. Mr. Freeland is also mentioned as a probable ministerial delegate. An equal number of ministers and laymen are chosen as delegates from each conference for the general conference. The ministerial delegates are elected by the minister members of the Indiana conference, while the lay delegates are chosen by the laymen.

The last two weeks have added much to the work of Mr. Freeland who is required to file exhaustive reports concerning the work of the district over which he presides. He was made district superintendent
last year and his term is for a period of six years. The ministers are appointed for terms of one year.

During the conference a number of local Methodists expect to go to Indianapolis. The open sessions are always full of interest as matters pertaining to church welfare are decided. The various ministers will speak in different churches in Indianapolis Sunday.

LOCAL ROTARIANS SPEND DAY AT INDIANAPOLIS

Many Members of Local Organization Attend Dyer Jubilee Meeting in Capital City.

The Seymour Rotary club sent a large delegation to Indianapolis this morning to attend the Dyer Jubilee
given in honor of John Napier Dyer, of Vincennes, first vice president of the International Association of Rotary Clubs, held at the Claypool hotel. A luncheon was held in the Riley room at the Claypool at noon today which was attended by eight hundred Rotarians.

Thirty-five Hoosier cities were represented with Rotary clubs at the celebration today. Some of the clubs were escorted by bands, jazz orchestras, soloists and stunt performers galore for the luncheon program.

Seymour Rotarians who attended the meeting at Indianapolis were:

C. H. Wiethoff, N. R. Martin, W.
L. Clark, Prof. T. A. Mott, Don A.
Bollinger, Nathan Kaufman, Rev. J.
H. More, J. H. Andrews, George F.
Kamman, Harry M. Miller, Dr.
George Rader, Edward Petterman,
Jack Frost, Dr. G. G. Graessle, Dr.
Harold P. Graessle, and L. C. Griff-itts.

ENDOWMENT BEING RAISED FOR REDDINGTON CEMETERY

Directors and Officers of Association Elected at Meeting Monday Night.

An endowment of $5,000, the interest of which will be used for the enlargement and maintenance of the Reddington cemetery is being raised.
At a meeting Monday night an association was formed with Dr. C. A.
Hunter, E. W. May, George I. Davis,
Milt Hazzard, George Baldwin, J. W.
Luekey and C. B. Davis as directors.
The directors elected the following officers:

President—Dr. C. A. Hunter.
Vice-president—E. W. May.
Secretary-treasurer—Milt Haz-
zard.

A drive to raise the endowment fund has already been started and is meeting with splendid success. People interested in the cemetery believe that the plan adopted by the association will result in the ground being kept in better condition. An enlargement of the cemetery is also planned.

FEES OF LOCAL PHYSICIANS TO BE INCREASED SHORTLY

Committee Appointed at Meeting
Monday Night to Work Out Equitable Scale.

At a meeting of the physicians of the city Monday night a committee of three was appointed to work out an equitable scale of fees which will be charged in the future. The committee is composed of Drs. G. G.
Graessle, J. H. Niles and D. L. Perrin.

The physicians point out that their fees have remained the same for the last twenty years, despite the increase in the cost of supplies and drugs. In some instances drug prices have soared more than a thousand per cent. and the doctors declare that frequently when they leave medicine the cost of the drugs
and supplies are so great that nothing is left for their services. It is also stated that the loss to physicians from unpaid accounts and charity work is considerable each year, but that because of the nature of their profession they are required to treat such cases the same as if they were paid for their services.

More Sites Inspected.

The commission which visited Chestnut Ridge Monday afternoon with the view of selecting a suitable site for the proposed Indiana colony
for feeble-minded, went to the Reddington neighborhood this morning to look over a tract of land which was recommended to the local committee. The commission also went to Crothersville to look at a proposed site there. The members made no intimation of their decision. The commission went to Jennings county
to inspect a proposed location.

ter a Long Illness—Funeral Arrangements Not Completed.

Mrs. Margaret Gudgel, an aged woman, died at the home of her with whom she made her home. One

ONE OF MEN ARRESTED FOR STEALING TIRES GIVES BOND

Leland Parker Released from County Jail Today—Bond Signed
by Indianapolis Parties.

Leland Parker, a member of the trio composed of two boys and one girl, arrested at Indianapolis last Thursday charged with stealing two automobile tires from a car owned by the Swain-Roach Lumber Company which was used by Silas Benham at Crothersville, gave a bond of $500 for his appearance in circuit court at the October term. The bond was furnished by Indianapolis parties. Chester Sands expects to give bond within the next few days.
Clayborne Cowan, the young lady,
who was arrested, will not likely be able to furnish bond and will have to remain in jail until the cases against the trio is disposed of. She gave her home as New York City, while the two boys are residents of Indianapolis.

LOCAL PEOPLE IN TEXAS DURING SEVERE STORM

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Bush Were in Houston—Railroad Tracks
Destroyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Bush have returned from a three weeks visit in Texas and other western states.
They had intended to visit relatives
at Galveston, Texas, but were unable to do so on account of the gulf storm which crippled the railroads
and caused millions of dollars worth of damage at that place several days ago. Mr. and Mrs. Bush were at Houston, Texas, when the storm occurred. Very little damage was done by the storm in that city which is about sixty miles from Galveston.

Tomato Receipts Heavy.

Tomato growers declare that with favorable weather, the tomato season will be extended several weeks.
The rain has furnished the moisture needed for the late crop to mature and bright, warm weather will ripen
the tomatoes rapidly. The local canneries are arranging for heavy receipts during the next two weeks.

HIGHWAY LEVY IS CAUSE OF DISPUTE

Amount to be Raised for State Road
Building is Item in Computing Local Tax Rate.

INTERPRETATION OF LAW

Commission Contends Levy of 10c on Valuation of 1919 Was Intended by Legislature.

Decision as to whether the levy
for state highways will be 10 cents
on the hundred dollars as contended by the state highway commission, or 4 cents as desired by the state tax board, will effect the final tax rate
that will be paid by local property owners. The controversy over the highways levy is waxing warm and a lively struggle is in progress.

The legislature provided for a 10-cent levy when it passed the new highway commission bill. The legislature also directed the state tax board to fix tax levies in accord with the increases in assessments as provided for in the new tax law. Those on the side of the highway commission contend that the legislature intended the commission should have a 10-cent levy based on the new assessments. Those on the other side say the levy was based on the old assessment and that the tax board should reduce the levy proportionately.

siding at Kurtz, was arrested on two serious charges Monday by H. L.
McCord, county sheriff, and placed in the county jail from which he was released this morning after giving a $1,600 bond. In one of the cases against Edwards he is charged with assault and in the other seduction.
Flora Fish is the plaintiff in the former case and Gladys Hutchinson in the latter. Both of the plaintiffs reside near Kurtz and are about sixteen years old. The defendant is nineteen years old. The cases will court.

STEEL STRIKE COMMITTEE TO SEND LETTER TO WILSON

Steel Companies Claim Situation Improves—Strikers Also Satisfied.

By United Press

Pittsburg, Pa., September 23.—
Taking the position that their strike
is a success and that further crippling of industry and violence should be avoided, it is believed that the strike committee at its meeting here tomorrow may address another letter to President Wilson in an effort to obtain a conference with Judge Gary. While reports from outside the Pittsburg district give the strikers the best of the fight to date, the steel companies are still resisting firmly in the great "iron valley."

Secretary Foster, of the steel workers' national committee, was still confident and claimed that approximately 6,000 more men were out in the Pittsburg district today than were out yesterday. He would not discuss the possibility of another letter, but he did not deny that it would be considered. Foster was engaged in court during the morning
on an appeal of cases of men arrested and fined in McKeesport recently for holding a public meeting.
He was among those arrested.

The steel companies claimed an improvement today over yesterday and still reflect confidence. In the meantime with word coming in from Sharon, Newcastle and other points of strikers killed and wounded in fights with police and minor outbreaks in this section, the feeling of strike leaders was becoming increasingly bitter today.

CONGRESSIONAL PROBE OF STEEL STRIKE ORDERED

By United Press

Washington, Sept. 23.—The steel strike is the first skirmish in an industrial war in the United States.
Senator Kenyon, Iowa, declared today in urging the senate to adopt his resolution for an investigation of the strike. The senate unanimously adopted his resolution. Kenyon announced Judge Gary head of the United States Steel Corporation, will be the first witness. He will be heard Thursday. John Fitzpatrick, representative of the workers, also is to be called for that day. Kenyon

ITALIAN CROWN COUNCIL WILL MEET THURSDAY

Important Session Will Have to Do With Fiume Problem, The Tri-buna Declares.

By United Press

Rome, September 23.—The crisis
the Italian government faces in Gabriele D'Annunzio's adventure at Fiume brought forth significant action today.

A royal decree was issued postponing the reopening of parliament
until Saturday, and calling a session of the crown council to be held Thursday. The Tribuna commenting on the summoning of the crown council points out the event is most important and directly connected with the Fiume problem "which involves the highest and most permanent interests in the country."

DISTURBANCES IN BUFFALO

Steel Masters Said to be Taking Huge Quantities of Food Within Their Plants Today.

By United Press

The second day of the nationwide steel workers' strike opened with both sides making every preparation for a long fight. Employers and workers alike, apparently had abandoned their early hope of a quick victory. The steel masters were reported to be bringing stocks of food
within their plants and laying plans
to defend their mills, if necessary, while the strikers were preparing to carry on industrial warfare for an extended period.

Reports indicated that although the strikers apparently are losing some ground in the smaller towns of the important Pittsburg district, the strength was greater there than had been admitted by the United States Steel corporation. In the Gary and Ohio areas, the strikes have succeeded in forcing either directly or indirectly a shut-down of most of the mills.

Order prevailed in most of the strike districts but there was some scattered rioting early today. In Sharon, Pa., several shots were exchanged and eleven men were reported to have been wounded.

At Buffalo disturbances which resulted in three riot calls last night were resumed this morning. Several persons were reported to have been injured and a number of arrests were made. Two men were killed and two wounded in clashes at Sarrell, Pa., last night, and at Newcastle, Pa., two women and five men were wounded when strikers
and police came together.

Two companies of state police have been ordered into Pittsburg districts.

15,000 Out at Gary.

Gary, Ind., Sept. 23.—With probably 15,000 steel workers in the Calumet district out, the second day of the strike found the situation unchanged.

Elwood Mills Closed.

By United Press
Elwood, Ind., Sept. 23.—This city was quiet today in the face of a strike of ninety-five percent. of the works of the tinplate plant. It is estimated that 2,000 men are idle.

By United Press.

Chicago, September 22.—Three

000 from the mails. Officers recovered $93,600 of the loot and went in aid of a postal clerk the men ex-

of the Standard Oil Company of In-crisis.

CALVES TO BE DISTRIBUTED AMONG LOCAL CLUB MEMBERS

Boys' and Girls' Organization Will Be Perfected by County Cow Testing Association.

"Notwithstanding the failure to have the dairy show here, the Jersey calves will be distributed as originally planned to the boys and girls who desire them," stated H. C. Henderson, director of agriculture in the Shields high school. The distribution will be made on the second or third Saturday in October, he said, and plans are being worked out to make the event an interesting feature.

The members of the committee appointed by the Jersey breeders have already purchased ten fine heifers near Nashville, Tenn. It was first intended to buy five or six months' old calves but the committee found that they could do so much better with the older heifers that they were immediately purchased. They are from seventeen to twenty-four months old, and seven are bred to an Island bull. The price is expected to average about $150.00 delivered at Seymour.

If any of the boys or girls still desire the younger animals, the committee may be able to secure them. They should see some member of the committee or Mr. Henderson of the agriculture department of the Seymour schools at once, so that arrangements may be made to secure what they want if possible. The other animals will be distributed by lot to the applicants so that all will have an equal chance, however they will be of nearly equal value, and all excellent individuals.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Scott of Wellston, O., who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Iams, returned to their home this morning. They were accompanied to North Vernon by Mrs. Iams.

Miss Catherine Spicer, who has been employed at the Schneck Memorial Hospital, left this morning for Indianapolis.

Olive Thomas at Your Theatre.

Picture enthusiasts who are ardent admirers of Olive Thomas will have an unusual opportunity to see this screen favorite interpret the role of a boy, when her most recent production, "Toton," is presented at the Majestic Theatre tonight.

It is not incongruous that this dainty star, whose first claim to popularity was, perhaps, her charming femininity, should have been selected to play a boy. For, as the plot reveals, Toton in reality is a girl, brought up to impersonate a boy. Her Apache guardian, to whom her mother entrusted the care of her daughter, has educated Toton to become the most notorious pickpocket in Paris that he may wreak vengeance with all the passion of his Latin temperament upon the father for the supposed wrong to Toton's mother, the Apache's former sweetheart.

Miss Thomas has won great praise as an actress and a large following by her performances in the past. But her critics rightfully claim that she deserves to be classified among the most artistic and realistic emotional actresses, by her versatile presentation of this difficult bit of characterization. Her portrayal of the boy "Toton" as the most wicked, but best loved fellow in the Latin quarter, reveals a personality rich in appeal and one that will win the sympathies of her audiences from the beginning to the end of this picture.

Then, to delight those who relish the sight of their favorite actress in conventional attire, Miss Thomas is revealed to her father and is presented in the frocks of the fair sex which she wears so beautifully.

A supporting cast of unusual ability is associated with Miss Thomas in this picture, Francis McDonald playing the part of the revengeful Apache, and Norman Kerry the father, who happily claims his daughter after the separation of many years.

The picture was produced under the direction of Frank Borzage, with settings and scenes that are said to be poetry and vision, promising in every way delightful entertainment to the patrons of the Majestic Theatre.

Lou C. Wallick, one of the best known hotel men in America, recently celebrated his birthday by entertaining New York hotel men with a luncheon at his country home at Closter, N. J. He was presented with a handsome punch and fruit bowl which was made of silver with a gold cover. The event was unusual in that novel entertainment features were prepared by Mr. and Mrs. Wallick. A recent issue of the Hotel Magazine carried a picture of Mr. Wallick on the front cover and gave a three page write up of the luncheon. A copy of the magazine was sent to W. P. Rooney, who was employed as clerk at the New Lynn hotel when Mr. Wallick was proprietor.

Mrs. H. C. McCoun and Mrs. J. V. Hinderlider of Medora, were in this city this morning enroute to Indianapolis.

Mrs. Matt Ream, of North Vernon, who has been visiting her husband at the Schneck Memorial Hospital, returned to North Vernon this morning.

DIZZINESS CAUSES FALL—HEAD INJURED

"A year ago my stomach bloated so badly with gas that I fell unconscious and cut my head badly on corner of door. I had suffered from stomach trouble for several years and no medicine helped me to speak of. A druggist patched up my head and advised me to use Mayr's Wonderful Remedy for my stomach trouble. The results have been really wonderful. I have never had any sign of my former symptoms since." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. At druggists everywhere.

HIGHWAYS LEVY IS CAUSE OF DISPUTE

ly to the increase in assessments, as the board is doing in all other instances of the kind.

If the legislature intended that the 10 cent levy should apply on the basis of the total state assessment at the time it placed the levy at 10 cents, then the levy for the highway commission would be fixed by the tax board to yield an amount equal to 10 cent taxes on each $100 of the $2,223,000,000, which was the old state total assessment. If the other theory applies then the state board would fix the levy at 10 cents on the new valuation, which is approximately $5,750,000,000.

On the basis of the old assessment the state tax board would cut the 10-cent levy to a 4-cent levy, or slightly less. In fact this is what the state board had in mind until it met with a storm of protest from the highway commission. The commission contends that such a small levy was never intended by the legislature; that the people of the state want road building to the tune of a 10-cent levy on the new assessment; that on such a basis the state can carry on approximately a $14,000,000 a year road building program in Indiana, with the maximum of help from the federal government. The commission has many backers in this contention.

Those on the other side say that the 10-cent levy provided by the law would in reality be nearly a 30-cent levy, thinking in terms of the old state total assessment at the time the 10-cent levy was provided for. They believe the legislature never intended to give the highway commission so great a revenue at first; that the road building program in Indiana should proceed rather more slowly at first.

SOCIAL EVENTS

SURPRISE SHOWER.

A very pretty party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Lawell in honor of the first wedding anniversary of their daughter, Mrs. E. H. Rothert.

The party was a complete surprise and took the form of a shower. The young lady was the recipient of a number of beautiful gifts.

Later in the evening the dining room doors were thrown open to a beautiful arrangement of fall flowers using white as the color scheme.

Long streamers of yellow crepe paper fell from the chandelier to the corners of the dining table and were held by candlesticks holding yellow candles. The centerpiece was a huge basket filled with golden rod and asters with baskets in all parts of the room and doorways. Dainty favors in the form of cotton balls tied with yellow ribbon in which a penny was concealed were given. Many yellow candles furnished the light for the rooms.

Refreshments of nuts and candies in tiny baskets and cake and ice cream in yellow baskets tied with yellow ribbon were served.

Mrs. Rothert expects to leave in a short time for future residence in Louisville, where her husband is stationed at Camp Taylor as an army field clerk.

Help High Living Cost.

Active entry into the campaign to lower the cost of living is urged upon more than six million members of War Savings societies throughout the country by William Mather Lewis, director of the savings division of the treasury department. The message for Chicago and the rest of the seventh federal reserve district was sent by Mr. Lewis to W. B. Bosworth, executive secretary of the District War Savings organization. There are 160,000 active savings societies, chiefly in industrial concerns. In his appeal Mr. Lewis said:

"No solution of the high living costs can be reached until the country shakes off its present spending intoxication and settles down to demanding a dollar's worth of food or material measured by the labor or effort required to obtain that dollar. Millions

DIAMONDS

JUST PLAIN FACTS

When better Diamonds are sold, price considered, the house of Geo. F. Kamman will sell them.

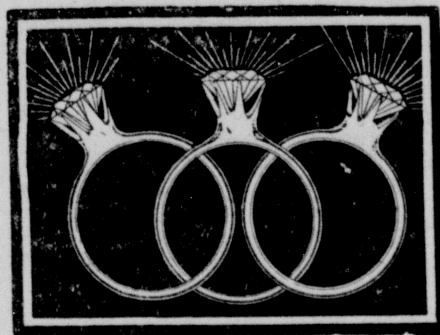

When lower priced Diamonds are sold we will sell them.

One look at our display may be sufficient to convince you of the advisability of buying from us. We now all realize that Diamonds have not reached the top in price. There is an even greater scarcity of good Diamonds than there was last year. We have on hand a big stock of good Diamonds, bought early, at much less than the market price today. Take our advice: buy now.

A great many people took our advice two years ago and bought Diamonds from us. Ask them today if they want to sell at what they paid for them, plus six per cent. on their investment. If they want to sell direct them to us.

We give you quality that equals the prices, otherwise we could not offer to buy back the Diamonds we sold.

of people are not spending from their earnings, but from their savings of the past two years.

"Liberty bonds and other securities accumulated by patriotic sacrifices during the war are being cashed at a loss to the purchaser to buy luxuries at prices exorbitant even for luxuries. It is not essential that we return to the extremes of economy and sacrifices of war times, but it is essential that we keep firm hold on the savings accumulated during the war, not only as a matter of personal benefit, but as a factor in bringing prices down.

"Enrolled in these government savings societies are more than six million people close to the very heart of American industrial life. It is in their power to increase the flow of production. It is in their power to check waste among themselves and those dependent upon them, as well as in the communities in which they live. This can be done by wise buying and treating what they buy with respect to the hours of labor its purchase cost them. It is in their power, through regular and consistent saving and safe and conservative investment in such securities as War Savings stamps and Treasury Savings certificates to add to the capital necessary for industrial expansion and increased production.

"The savings division of the treasury department, therefore appeals to the savings societies to re-enlist in this campaign. They can show the people of America how, and what to buy. They can teach how and when to save. They can assure a larger part of our national effort to production of necessities. They can aid to bring about increased employment and prevent the lowering of the general standard of living in America."

Harry Edwards Clay, manager of the War Savings stamp societies for the seventh district, lost no time sending out an appeal to the 1,500,000 members in Illinois, Michigan, Iowa, Indiana and Wisconsin backing up the plea from Washington.

Much of the outcry against candy is the result of wrong methods of use. It can be taken at meal time with good results. Scientists say that the food value of sugar is very great. A pound of sugar contains more energy and power to support animal life than a pound of meat.

If candy is taken under such conditions that it will not derange the digestive apparatus, it is perfectly wise and rational to be a candy eater.

English Mayor in Hot Water.

Women were slighted at the peace banquet at Luton, England, and there was a lively row about it. The board of guardians includes five women, and the male members only were invited to the dinner. The mayor tried to explain that there was room only for five hundred, but the ladies declared there were not five hundred men in the district who had done public work during the war, while each of the five women had.

Want to Feel Just Right?

Take an NR Tonight

JUST TRY IT AND SEE how much better you feel in the morning. That "foggy," headachy, tired, don't-know-what's-the-matter feeling will be gone—you'll feel fine.

TROUBLE IS, your system is clogged with a lot of impurities that your over-worked digestive and eliminative organs can't get rid of. Pills, oil, salts, calomel and ordinary laxatives, cathartics and purges only force the bowels and prod the liver.

Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) acts on the stomach, liver, bowels and even kidneys, not forcing, but toning and strengthening these organs. The result is prompt relief and real, lasting benefit. Make the test. Nature's Remedy will act promptly, thoroughly, yet so mildly, so gently, that you will think nature herself has come to the rescue and is doing the work.

And oh, what a relief! You'll be surprised to find how much better you feel—brighter, better every day. If habitually or stubbornly constipated, take one NR Tablet each night for a week. Then you'll not have to take medicine every day. Just an occasional NR Tablet after that will be sufficient to keep your system in good condition—keep you feeling your best.

He is chairman of the House Committee on Agriculture, which is taking up the question of cold storage.

GRENADINES TO HELP INDUSTRIAL CONCERN EMPLOYEES TO SAVE

Government Savings Societies to Be Formed in 100,000 Plants of District to Aid Uncle Sam's Finances.

A fairly generous proportion of the 15,000,000 hand grenades owned by the War Department of the United States when the armistice was signed are to pass into the hands of America's industrial army through the Government Savings Societies of America's industrial organizations. They will be used as savings banks.

Already 20,000 of the country's industrial organizations, those in which Government Savings Societies already flourish, have been "lined up" for distribution. At least 100,000 will be included when the work is in full swing.

The hand grenades are the genuine articles, just the same hand grenades as those with which the Yanks did such deadly execution in Europe. The only difference, in outward appearance, is that a money slot has been cut through the shrapnel casing forming the body of the grenade. Inside, the explosive chamber has been cleared and a removable screw substituted for the base of the casting. In place of the high explosives so carefully developed by American army experts the grenades, as banks, hold one hundred dimes or one hundred pennies—the shrapnel of the United States treasury. Acquisition of a hand grenade bank will become possible to any United States worker by following the simple plan outlined by Harry Edwards Clay, manager of the Industrial Division of the War Loan Organization, Seventh Federal Reserve District, who has the distribution in charge.

The industrial worker, eager to possess one of these remarkable war souvenirs, has only to purchase, through the secretary of the War Savings Society of his particular plant, factory or organization, three War Savings Stamps at a single time or one War Savings Stamp a month for three consecutive months. The grenade bank then will become his, being received through the Government Savings Society for the industrial organization of which he is a part. Thereafter it may be used for personal and private savings, as well as for money in course of accumulation for further War Savings Stamps purchase or as a beginning toward acquisition of one of the newer Treasury Savings Certificates now issued in denominations of $100 and $1,000.

SALARY INCREASES TO BE CONFERENCE ISSUE

Methodist Ministers Meet in Indianapolis—Election of Conference Delegates.

By United Press

Indianapolis, September 23.—Salary increases for the ministry will be placed before the Indiana conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, which opened here today. This question has been discussed for some time. Proponents point out that in several cases ministers received only $600 a year.

That other conferences will follow the leadership of the Indiana conference is considered probable in view of the fact that it is one of the largest conferences in Methodism. It covers all of Indiana south of the National road including the city of Indianapolis.

This meeting is the first since the centenary of the church at Columbus, Ohio, and much interest is attached to the distribution of some of the centenary money. The session has attracted much attention throughout the state by the fact that it will be a "double" conference.

Every four years delegates are elected to the general conference—seven of the ministry and seven laymen. Names mentioned for the ministerial delegation include: L. C. Bentley, of Vincennes; J. S. Ward and A. B. Hughes, of Evansville; L. T. Freeland, of Seymour; John Walker, of Connersville; J. F. O'Haver, of Vincennes.

NEW SAVINGS CERTIFICATES

$100 and $1,000 Government Securities Are Available in September for $84 and $840 Respectively.

Treasury Savings Certificates in denominations of $100 and $1,000 are being distributed throughout the five states of the Seventh Federal Reserve district. They may be bought during the month of September for $84 and $840 respectively. These new government securities are in reality discount bonds. They will mature January 1, 1924, and are issued only in registered form to insure them against theft or loss. The same rate of interest is paid as for War Savings stamps, namely 4 per cent compounded quarterly. War Savings Stamps of the 1919 issue may be exchanged for the Treasury certificates.

The Treasury Savings Certificates are offered to the public at any post office of the first or second class and at incorporated banks and trust companies which are agents for the sale of 1919 War Savings Stamps. The name of each purchaser will be inscribed on every certificate, the registration records being kept at the Treasury department in Washington, D. C. Each month the new certificates will increase in price. They began in July at $83 for the $100 certificate and at $836 for the one which will be worth $1,000 when it matures. Thus the income increase is twenty cents a month for the smaller certificate and two dollars a month for the other. They are tax free except inheritance, surtaxes, war profits and excess profit taxes.

Mrs. Whiteside Tells How Trutona Quickly Overcame Her Many Troubles.

Fairmount, Ind., Sept. 22.—As has been the case in hundreds of cities and towns, Trutona has won friends quickly in Fairmount, among them being Mrs. H. J. Whiteside, 311 South Barkley street, who says of the perfect tonic:

"For the past year I've suffered from combination of stomach, liver and kidney troubles. I simply couldn't eat acid foods without having trouble with my stomach. Gas frequently formed in my stomach and caused me to belch considerably. I'd have severe pains in my back and sides. I would be very nervous at times and seldom rested at night. Generally speaking I felt tired and run down and had that 'draggy feeling' nearly all the time."

"I can eat anything, since taking Trutona, without suffering the former bad after effects. The gas formations have ceased to occur, which has done away with the annoying belching. Trutona has greatly relieved the pains in my back and sides and my nerves are in better condition now. I can rest much better at night. But most of all, I don't feel all tired out as I formerly did. Trutona has given me the relief I've needed and wanted for the past year and I'm sure others may get the same relief if they take it according to directions."

The relief Mrs. Whiteside gained from the use of Trutona is typical of thousands of other cases. Men and women are daily testifying to the beneficial results they have derived from Trutona for the treatment of a run down condition.

Trutona is now being introduced and explained in Seymour at W. L. Federmann's Drug Store.

Asserts New Discovery Brings Blessed Relief To Rose and Hay Fever Sufferers

Can Make It Yourself At Home At Trifling Expense

In spite of all the doubters and scoffers, a man in Kentucky, who changed his annoying and distressing hay fever into less than a mild cold, claims most emphatically that if taken in time hay fever can be conquered or at least made so harmless that it is not even bothersome.

He gave his discovery to scores of other sufferers with the most remarkable results and has recently been prevailed upon to dispense it through pharmacists to all hay fever sufferers who still have faith that nature has provided an effective remedy for this common yet miserable disease.

And best of all this remedy costs almost nothing. Get a one ounce bottle of Mentholized Arcline at any drug store, pour the contents into a pint bottle and fill the pint bottle with water that has been boiled.

Then gargle as directed and twice daily sniff or spray each nostril thoroughly.

That's all there is to it; so simple that a lot of people will say that it can't do the work; but oftentimes simple natural remedies are the best as you will find after using.

If you will make up a pint and use it for a week or ten days you need not be surprised if your unwelcome yearly visitor fails to appear.

They were a hard lot and a polychrome!

The English and Americans amongst them had every appearance of being the sweepings of the slums of London, Liverpool, New York, and, for men of their ilk, the more vicious seaports of the far East. The rest were of every nationality—two of the coal-passers were Chinese coolies, the steward was from the West Indies, the cook was a Frenchman from Port Said, and two Danes, a Swede, a Kanaka, from the Sandwich islands, and three Japanese completed the roster.

Wallen looked up, and fixed his eyes speculatively on his Chinese boatman. They were almost at the landing.

"You sabe Drink-House Sam?" he demanded abruptly.

The Chinaman smirked knowingly. "Me sabe," he replied.

"All right," said Wallen. "You take me there. But first, you take me where

"Me Sabe," He Replied.

the stores are, I want to buy some things, and I don't know my way about."

"Me sabe," said the Chinaman again. "All same velly good guide."

He proved to be. Within half an hour after landing, Wallen had completed the purchase of an excellent automatic pistol and ammunition, and was following the Chinaman back along a dark street near the waterfront. Another few minutes of twistings and turnings, and the Chinaman had halted before an uninviting-looking hostility in an equally uninviting-looking neighborhood.

"Drink-House Sam's," announced the guide. "Blim-bly you all same go back ship? Me wait?"

"No," said Wallen, as he paid the other. "That's all. Good-night, John!" The Chinaman disappeared.

Wallen surveyed the building before which he stood. It was one of those Easternized-European wooden structures, two stories high, the front rooms on the second story opening directly onto the veranda. With the general air of being disreputably out at elbows, it bore all the earmarks of a sailor's boarding house of the lowest type.

Wallen stepped forward, pushed the bar-room door open, and entered.

A bar ran down one side; a score of small tables occupied the main portion of the room, and around these were clustered some twenty-five or thirty rough-looking hands, evidently on shore leave from the harbor's shipping—and making the most of it.

Behind the bar were two men, one of whom Wallen made no doubt, was Drink-House Sam, presumably, the proprietor—a big man in shirt sleeves, the sleeves rolled to the elbows over puffed, blue-veined arms, a man whose face was florid and hard-lined, with eyes close-set, and whose close-cropped hair, with little white skin-spots showing where the clippers had done their work too thoroughly, lent a peculiarly repellent aspect to his general appearance. A steel-like glint held for an instant in Wallen's eyes—and vanished! Drink-House Sam of Singapore!

Wallen crossed to the bar, and confronted the big man in shirt sleeves.

"Are you the proprietor here?" he asked. "The man the coolies call Drink-House Sam?"

The other eyed him furtively.

"That's me; Sam Marie, by rights," he admitted curtly. "What can I do for you, mister?"

"Well," said Wallen, lowering his voice, "I'd like a few minutes of your time, somewhere in private."

"What for?" demanded Marie.

Wallen leaned across the bar.

"It's about the Upolo," he said confidentially.

The man stared at him for a moment, a curiously mingled expression of cunning and surprise creeping into the small, black, red-rimmed, shifty eyes—then he stepped abruptly out from behind the bar, led the way to an empty table at the end of the room by the rear door, and flung himself down into a chair.

Wallen followed, but remained standing on the opposite side of the table.

"I can't say I call this very private," he protested.

"It'll do till I know more of your business!" grunted Marie. "Take it or leave it. I ain't for sneakin' off with the first stranger that comes in, and havin' every last one of these swine here get to figurin' I'm puttin' up some sort of a deal to shanghai his particular carcass. And sit down, mister—you're showin' more'n is necessary of your good clothes."

It was true.

His standing there after the other had seated himself only served to attract further attention. A crowd at the next table was already indulging sotto voce, in uncomplimentary and drunkenly offensive remarks.

"Now shoot the works!" prompted Drink-House Sam. "What about this 'ere Upolo?"

Wallen was casting about in his mind for what to say now. If he could play the man, arouse the other's fear, perhaps, or his curiosity that would be backed by fear, or his cunning, or his interest sufficiently to get him somewhere alone without giving away his own hand.

Ah! Yes, he had it now. Helen MacKay had unwittingly furnished him the lead with her laughing reference to putting his head into the lion's mouth. If he said innocently that Ting Wah had sent him!

Drink-House Sam would naturally conclude that the Chinese accomplice was still playing into his hand, and had sent him, Wallen, back into the power of this rat-eyed murderer with the bloated face to complete the work that Ting Wah, for some reason or other, had been unable to accomplish.

Wallen's hands that were thrust into his trousers' pockets clenched fiercely. This man before him, just a few feet away with just the table top between them, was Drink-House Sam at last, the man who knew, the man he had dreamed of night and day in his long convalescence at MacKnight's as the man who some day he would treat as he would treat a poison snake!

Queer that he was seeing that screaming, maddened wretch, Won Su, jump overboard again.

His mind seemed to grow almost ghoully. That flabby neck of the man in front of him was Drink-House Sam's, the man who had loosed a pack of Chinese thugs upon him—how far in would his fingers sink?

"Well, you got lockjaw?" growled Drink-House Sam. "This 'ere Upolo, you was sayin'?"

"Yes," said Wallen, and smiled engagingly. "It's a bit of a longish story, but I'll cut it short with a word—yellow jack cleaned her out somewhere in the Java sea."

"Huh!" snorted Marie. "Everybody knows that. Most of us can read, mister. She was picked up by the gunboat Phyllis a few weeks ago; and a 'orrid mess she was, accordin' to accounts."

"Is that so? I hadn't heard she'd been picked up," said Wallen slowly. "But that's nothing to do with what brought me here."

The thrust was unexpected, as Wallen had meant it to be. Marie, with an involuntary start, leaned sharply forward over the table; and then, with a clumsy attempt to cover his agitation, spoke viciously:

"Say, what the 'ell you givin' us? How should I know him?"

"You don't know him?" ejaculated Wallen in well-simulated surprise.

"Never heard of him," declared Marie; but the rat eyes were stealthily searching Wallen's face.

"That's strange," Wallen mused aloud perplexedly. "I'm quite sure I haven't made a mistake. The man was dying, of course, and pretty far gone, and talked thickly, but it was Ting Wah that sent me to you. He—"

Wallen's fists in his pockets clenched a little harder—"said you would know."

"Did he?" inquired Marie with a sneer. "And who are you, mister?"

"I'm Wallen—Stacey Wallen, the first mate, you know," said Wallen earnestly. "I'm the sole survivor; left the bark in a boat and—what's wrong, Mr. Marie?"

The florid face, a miserable fear stamped upon it, and a grayish color, and the man, jaw-sagged, was staring across the table. A fierce joy swept Wallen—and then uneasiness. Perhaps, after all, his strategy had been faulty.

Drink-House Sam was evidently placing a far different interpretation Wallen, had intended. And then, to Wallen's amazement, as abruptly as fear had come into the other's face it was gone, and in its place was sudden relief, genuine enough for all the shrewd, cunning gleam of the eyes that accompanied it.

"You say you are Wallen, eh, the first mate?" asked Marie craftily.

"Yes," said Wallen composedly.

"Then you're a liar!" Marie shouted instantly and sprang up from his seat.

There was an echoing creak of chairs as they were shoved back all over the room, the scuffle of heavy boots as men rose to their feet. Wallen, suddenly hard-faced, taken by surprise, hastily pushed his own chair back and stood up.

Marie was laughing brutally now, but in a strangely hysterical way, in which relief again was dominant. It puzzled Wallen—but there was little time to think of that. The men from the nearest table were pushing forward.

G. H. Anderson's Bulletin.

On September 12 I received a car load of Aviston flour out of hard wheat and guarantee every pound of it to be as good flour and as is on the market. Also have a full line of feed, hominy feed, cracked corn, feed meal, Schumacker hog feed, dairy feed and a full line of all kinds of feed. Owing to the break in corn, these feeds are getting down in price. You will find me in line with the market at all times on feed and grain. I am in the market at all times for wheat, corn, rye and oats at the market price.

G. H. Anderson, Phone 353. s12d&wtf

Modern Gallantry.

I shall be even disposed to rank it among the salutary fictions of life, when in polite circles I shall see the same attentions paid to age as to youth, to homely features as to handsome, to coarse complexions as to clear—to the woman as she is a woman, not as she is a beauty, a fortune or a title. I shall believe it to be something more than a name when a well-dressed gentleman in a well-dressed company can advert to the topic of female old age without exciting, and intending to excite, a sneer—when the phrases, "antiquated virginity," and such a one has "oversteered her market," pronounced in good company, shall raise immediate offense in man, or woman, that shall hear them spoken.—Charles Lamb.

Movable.

"Where is Mr. Flubdub lunching today?"

"Well, he may be at the next corner or he may be a couple of blocks down the street."

"I thought his habits were very regular. Can't you tell me where he is lunching?"

"Not precisely. He lunches at a banana cart, but it moves around."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Why Zoo Animals Died.

One hundred animals in the Paris zoological gardens died during the war. After a bomb from a German airplane made a big hole in the Rue Cuvier, alongside the gardens, the authorities thought it wise to kill the poisonous snakes, lest they should escape and cause a panic. Later the river Seine overflowed its banks and flooded part of the gardens, and monkeys, antelopes and giraffes developed chest complaints and died. Only the water-fowl flourished, but Coco, the baby hippo, the pride of the gardens, died of ennui, they say, as the gardens were virtually deserted during the war.

How Poland May Be Restored.

Agricultural Poland is one of the most productive nations of the earth ordinarily. Its beet sugar industry is exceptionally important. Polish patriots declare it should soon be again what it was for centuries, the granary of Europe. Cattle raising was discouraged by governmental restrictions, but the sheep industry is conducted on a gigantic scale, and under the new government it is intimated that cattle and hides again will become articles of export.

How Forests Will Be Restored.

The restoration of the devastated forests on the western front is to be undertaken by Norway. According to the tentative plan, it is proposed to plant a belt of Norwegian trees from the Belgian frontier to the Ardennes. So great is the destructive power of shell fire that where large woods once stood nothing now remains but a few shattered stumps. In Thiepval wood scarcely a trunk is standing, while High wood and Delville wood are place-names rather than collections of trees. Vast areas in the forest of Morval are denuded of timber, while throughout the Somme area living trees are the exception and not the rule.
